Are you keen on communications with a passion for ending global poverty?

We have an exciting opportunity for an intern between the ages of 21-26 to work with All We Can, Methodist Relief and Development, as part of our Public Engagement Team.

All We Can is an international development and emergency relief organisation. Focusing on those in greatest need, it is inspired by Christian principles, with its roots in the British Methodist Church. The successful applicant will have the opportunity to gain experience across a range of areas including communications, content generation, digital production and social media. The main focus of the role will be maximising opportunities for people to hear and share the stories of All We Can's work around the world.

Excited about engaging in global education to inform, challenge and motivate people to take a stance against poverty and injustice? Inspired by the potential of strong communications to change the way people think about global inequality? We could be looking for you...

You will work as part of a team in the following areas:

- Researching and ideas generating
- Producing quality traditional and digital media content
- Writing for a range of different audiences
- Playing an active role in the Public Engagement Team
- Producing materials for marketing
- Contributing ideas to whole team projects

There will be opportunities for professional and personal learning and development to equip the intern for employment after their time on the internship. The intern will be curious, creative, self motivated and a team player.
